

About Us

Founded in 2006, Divine Pearls is owned and operated by a mother-and-daughter team of pearl devotees, namely Sarah Healy and Lynette Jensen.

When you speak with us (and we sincerely hope you do), you'll quickly realise one thing...

We love pearls.

We love their timelessness, their elegance, their flawless femininity. Their classic romanticism and sensual allure. Their surprising perfection. Their chic individuality.

In fact, until very recently, there was only thing we didn't love about pearls, and that was Australia's uninspiring selection. Unless you were prepared to pay tens of thousands of dollars, high quality pearls and unique, stylish designs were all but impossible to find.

So we established Divine Pearls. And we set ourselves the goal to deliver the finest quality freshwater pearls and the most innovative, fashionable and wearable designs, all hand-made and all affordable. What's more, we committed ourselves to saving our customers valuable time by making our collection available online, and backing it with the highest standards of customer service.

Our Collection

"With a pearl alone, did Cleopatra conquer Rome's Marc Anthony. Aphrodite, Goddess of Love, Beauty and Pleasure, from the sea emerged, in pearls bejewelled. It is true that in the 'tears of the sea' we find love."

Unknown

Throughout history, pearls – above all other jewels – have been considered a symbol of love, beauty and matrimonial harmony. They speak of elemental, unyielding, unqualified passion.

More than that, they speak of you. Perhaps it is the pearl's simplicity, perhaps its sheer 'naturalness'. Whatever the cause, when a woman wears pearls, it is she who is noticed.

So we make pearl jewellery to be worn. Elegant, chic, hand-made freshwater pearl pieces. No staid old designs, destined for the jewellery box, and no impersonal chain-store duplications. Every design in our extensive collection is unique. They are all one-offs, each awaiting precisely the right wearer.

So please, find your perfect piece...

- 100% hand-crafted
- 100% authentic freshwater pearls
- Authentic freshwater pearls have a natural radiance, iridescence, and slight variations in size and colour
- All necklaces come with custom-designed matching pearl earrings
